

Local wisdom: Sustainable development and innovation

Koen METSU
Mayor of Edegem, BELGIUM

Sustainable Development Goals United Nations

Local implementation

Edegem is 1 of 20 participants in a Flemish pilot project for SD on a local level, organized by VVSG (The Association of Flemish Cities and Municipalities)

VVSG supports local governments in their actions around Sustainable Development

Edegem is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

Edeger is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

Edegem is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

Burgemeester Koen Metsu en enkele leerlingen zamen zwerfvuil in rond het Gemeenteplein. Foto Benoît De Freine

Edegem is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

Edegem is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

Edegem is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

Edeger is a healthy community where we strive for a balance between innovation and environment

The world's largest lesson

Our children can save the world